THE SPOTLIGHT

1973

Dedication

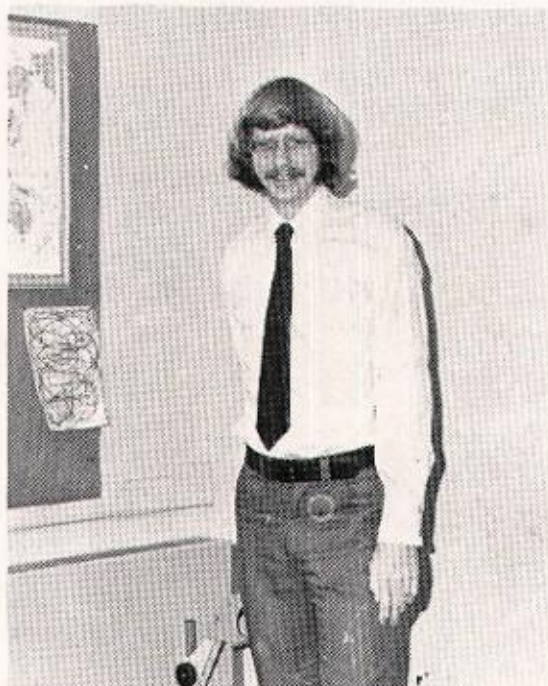

Man is his own star; and the soul that can
Render an honest and a perfect man,
Commands all light, all influence, all fate;
Nothing to him falls early or too late.

--Anonymous

We pause now to consider the moments ahead! Who are we? What will we become? Many have influenced our lives and our thoughts. You have been one we could always count on. Your ability to listen, understand, and advise has made you a friend to all. In coaching soccer and basketball, your knowledge of the sports, your ability to relate to other's feelings, and your good nature helped the teams to become the best they could be.

Because of what you've done for all of us, individually and as groups; to help us become all that we are, we, the yearbook staff of 1973 dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Smith. Your efforts will not soon be forgotten.

1973 Yearbook Staff

Our purpose for being here is to get an education, to learn to open our minds. This is accomplished both in and out of the classroom.

But now, so much has happened, so much has changed, so much to leave behind, so easy to carry along

We have learned a lot, but most importantly we have learned to be ourselves. For we are the Class of '73.

Class Advisor: Mr. Dunham.

Senior Class Officers: Jeff Packard, Harriet Whitehead, Tom Kashmer, Ron Risley.

The members of the class of 1973 take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to you, Mr. Dunham, for your leadership and guidance through all our activities and problems during these four years.

If you should become advisor of another class, surely our loss will be their gain.

Here, in action, is Mr. Dunham giving guidance.

Thelma E. Pineda: The International Fellowship exchange student during the 1973 school year. Thelma added a lot to everyone's enjoyment during her stay here. We learned some of her customs and she also taught many students a few Spanish words. We hope that she liked her visit here as much as we liked her being here. And when she leaves us, it will be a great loss to everyone.

"I'd rather do it myself."

"Hi, cutie did you come for me?"

"Yes, this is where it's at all right."

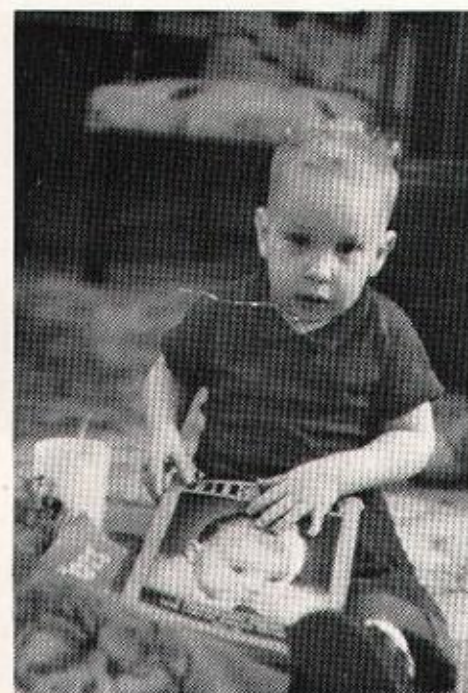

"I know something that you don't know."

See no, hear no, know all?

"On your mark, get set, go!"

"That's not fair, this book is very educational."

"Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early . . ."

"Is it really you?"

"Peek-a-boo."

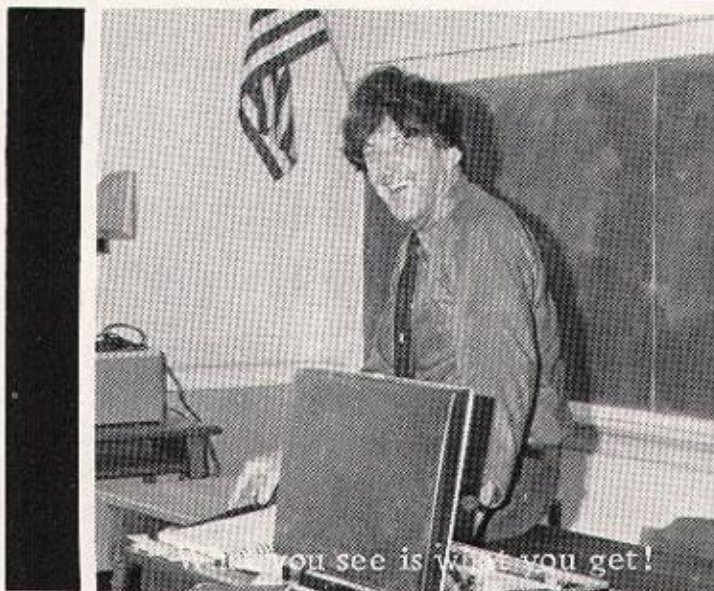

"ez-vous l'ancais?"

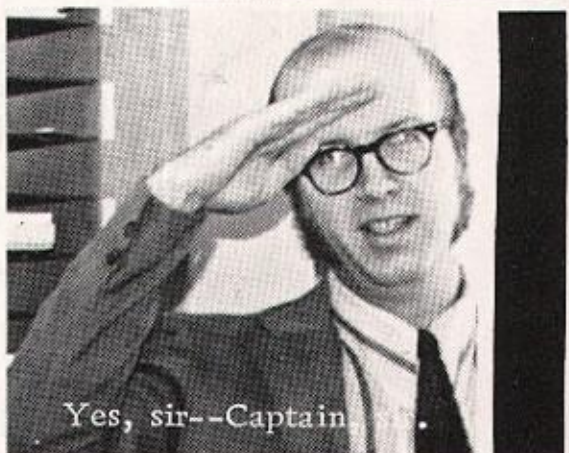

This is the hand that

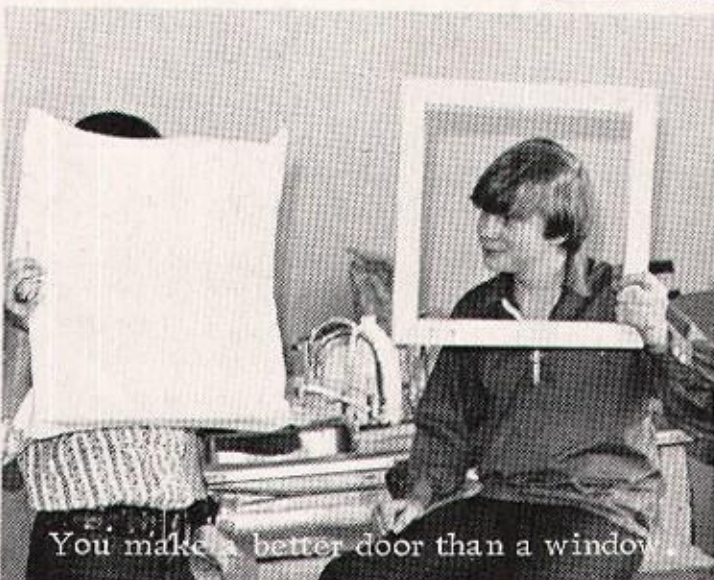

Sometimes you have to take the bad with the good.

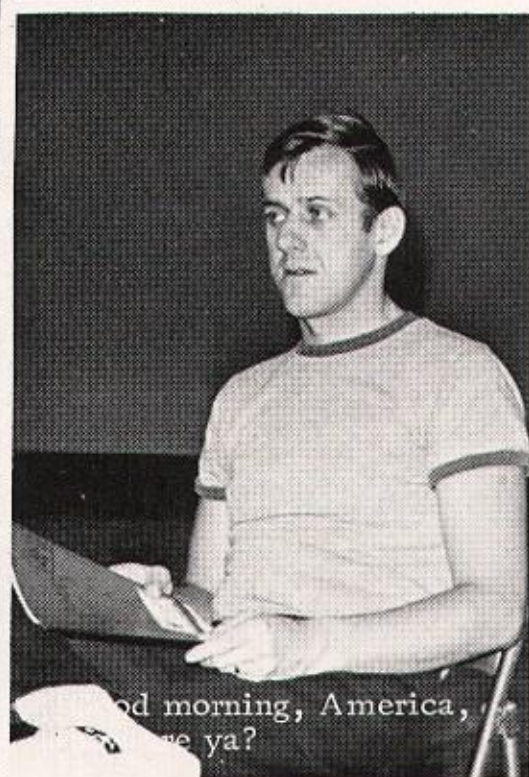

What you see is what you get!

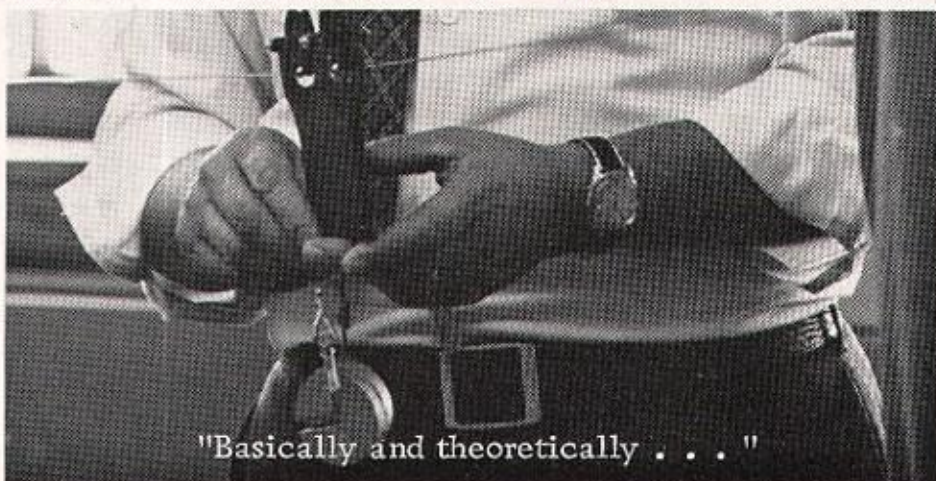

Yes, sir--Captain . . .

You make a better door than a window.

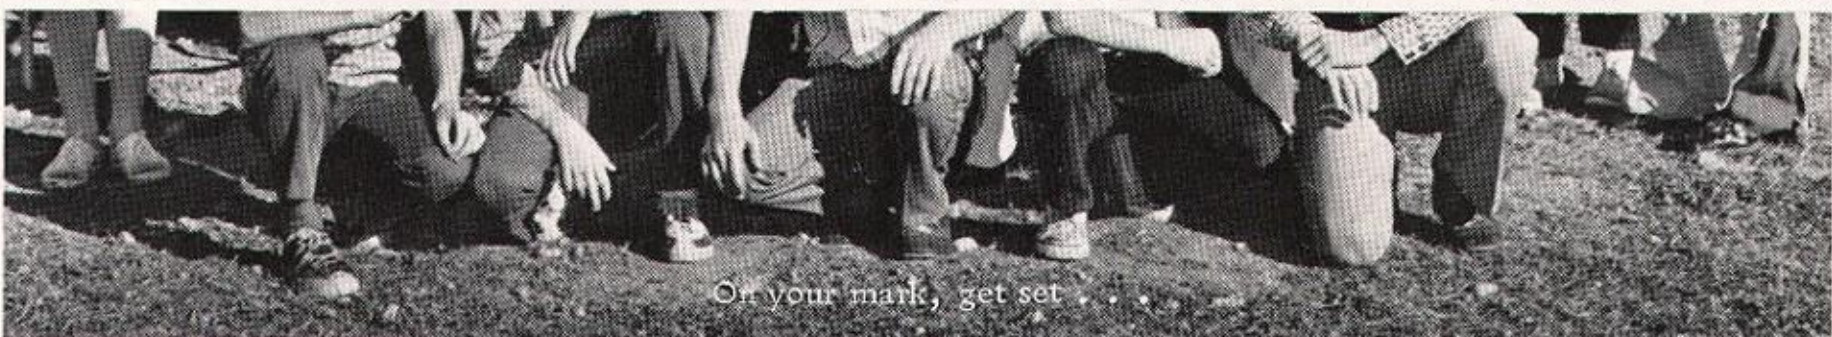

Good morning, America, how ya?

"Basically and theoretically . . ."

"What's number six?"

On your mark, get set . . .

In all her grandeur firm and proud,
'Mid scenes we love so well,
Our noble Alma Mater stands,
Most glorious to tell.

For her we'll fight
With all our might,
Nor honor shall she lack.
With verse and song her praise prolong
The Crimson and the Black.

E'er following her standard true
Her praise untold we'll sing;
While far and wide, o'er land and tide,
Resounding echoes ring!

Oh, Campbell, Alma Mater true,
Ne'er honor shall ye lack.
While far on high, thy colors fly,
The Crimson and the Black.

To behold a whole new day aborning.
To heed the call of dawn's creation.
To peer inward and see hope.
To feel new meaning in the life you know.
To wonder at the life you are about to know.
To quest for who you are and what you are to be.
 To find purpose in being.
 To sense challenge in becoming.
 To imagine yourself a star in the heavens.
 To approach the known and ask why.
 To confront the unknowable and ask why not.
To see adventure in flights transitory.
To see eternity in truths immutable.
 To reach.
 To touch.
 To know.

To rejoice at the rise of the sun.
To seek light where there is dark.
To seek peace where there is strife.
 To embrace dear values.
 To seize the present.
 To chart the future.
To find summer in winter, sun in rain.
To accept your place in tomorrow.
 To love to live.
 To live to love.
 To laugh.
 To cry.
 To be.
 To become.
